The Revival of the Local Construction Industry

Optimism prevails in the Portland Area construction market. Population is booming and the influx of new residents is driving an explosion of housing construction, especially multi-family housing in the core downtown area.

Here at JHC, we are breaking ground on three apartment complexes in the first quarter and expect that number to increase as the year unfolds. Other commercial construction is thriving as well as businesses of all types are adding space and locations.

Although this winter's unusually snowy weather slowed production on some jobs, our tenant improvement projects never missed a beat.

These are exciting and dynamic times in the construction business, and we are enjoying the revival of the industry locally. The JHC Team is here and ready to serve your construction needs! If you have questions relating to construction services or would like someone to call you to discuss plans for your project, call me at 503-624-7100 or email me at jhughes@jhc-companies.com.

Golden Poles Condominiums, Government Camp, Oregon. Winter came early and fierce, which resulted in shutting the job down. These pictures are seven days apart.

In Hillsboro, Oregon, JHC constructed the new 12,500-square-foot Snow Flakes Pre-School which opened this spring.
